

DAWOOD PUBLIC SCHOOL
Course Outline for the year 2011-2012
Social Studies
Class-III

History:

Book:

OXFORD HISTORY FOR PAKISTAN. BOOK-1. PETER MOSS

CONTENTS:

1. Why learn History? Pg#2
2. Measuring time. Pg#3
3. The world in the beginning. Pg #4
4. Discovering the past. Pg#06

Geography:

Book:

GEOGRAPHY SUCCESS. BOOK-4. TERRY JENNINGS.

CONTENTS:

1. Where does water come from? Pg#04
2. Rivers and people. Pg#10
3. The River Indus. Pg#12
4. Polluted rivers. Pg#18
5. Capital cities. Pg#44
6. Why do famines occur? Pg# 56

August 2011:

1. Why learn History? Pg#02

Aims and Objective:

- To introduce the concepts of past and present.
- To distinguish between modern and ancient people.

September 2011:

2. Where does water come from? Pg#04

Aims and Objective:

- To teach the students how water is recycled and the sources of water.

October 2011:

3. Measuring time. Pg#03

Aims and Objective:

- To introduce the concept of measuring time, timeline showing the time from C.E to B.C.E

November 2011:

4. Rivers and people. Pg#10.

Aims and Objective:

- To create an understanding of why people settle near the rivers and what were its advantages.

December 2011:

Mid-year Exams

DAWOOD PUBLIC SCHOOL
Course Outline for the year 2011-2012
Social Studies
Class-III

January 2012:

5. The world in the beginning. Pg #04

Aims and Objective:

- To explain how was the world in the beginning.
- How people looked like.
- How gradually people started living in settlements.

February 2012:

6. The River Indus. Pg#12

Aims and Objective:

- To provide information of the longest river of Asia.

March 2012:

7. Polluted rivers. Pg#18

Aims and Objective:

- To explain how rivers are polluted. What are the causes of pollution in the rivers?

April 2012:

8. Discovering the past. Pg#06

Aims and Objective:

- To explain the meaning, how do we know about the things in the past?
- What did the dinosaurs look like two hundred million years ago?

REVISION

May 2012:

FINAL EXAMINATIONS

