

DAWOOD PUBLIC SCHOOL
Course Outline for the year 2011-2012
Social Studies
Class-IV

HISTORY

Book:

OXFORD HISTORY FOR PAKISTAN. BOOK-1. PETER MOSS.

CONTENTS:

1. The Old Stone Age. Pg#08

Aims and Objectives:

- To create an understanding of how people shape the stone for different purposes and make tools and weapons.
- Difference between the Old Stone Age and the inventions and discoveries of the modern age.

2. The New Stone Age. Pg#10

Aims and Objectives:

- To teach the students how people started farming, taming animals, adopting different jobs, making tools and transport goods by travelling.

3. The age of metals. Pg#12

Aims and Objectives:

- To make the students aware about the discovery of different metals.
- Molding and shaping various metals into different tools, ornaments and utensils.

4. Egypt and the Nile. Pg#20

Aims and Objectives:

- To provide knowledge about the ancient Egypt and their government.
- Their culture, customs and means of transportation.

5. Pyramids and mummies. Pg#22

Aims and Objectives:

- To give knowledge about the religious believes of Egyptians.
- How are pyramids built and why the Egyptians preserved the bodies of the dead as mummies.

GEOGRAPHY

Book:

Geography Success. BOOK-4. TERRY JENNINGS.

CONTENTS:

1. Where does water come from? Pg#04

Aims and Objectives:

- To create awareness about the water cycle and sources of water amongst students.

2. Where rivers begin? Pg#06

Aims and Objectives:

- To aware the students about the sources of rivers and springs and their origin.
- What is erosion?

DAWOOD PUBLIC SCHOOL
Course Outline for the year 2011-2012
Social Studies
Class-IV

3. Rivers and people. Pg#10

Aims and Objectives:

- To provide information about the importance of rivers, fords and ports for people.

4. Hills, mountains and map. Pg#20

Aims and Objectives:

- To provide knowledge about the definition of hills and mountains and how to study the map.

5. How are mountains formed? Pg#22

Aims and Objectives:

- To create information of different types of mountains, volcanoes, fold and block mountains.

6. Mountains and the weather. Pg #24

Aims and Objectives:

- To develop the knowledge of effect of mountains on the weather.
- What is rain shadow?

7. Himalayas. Pg#26

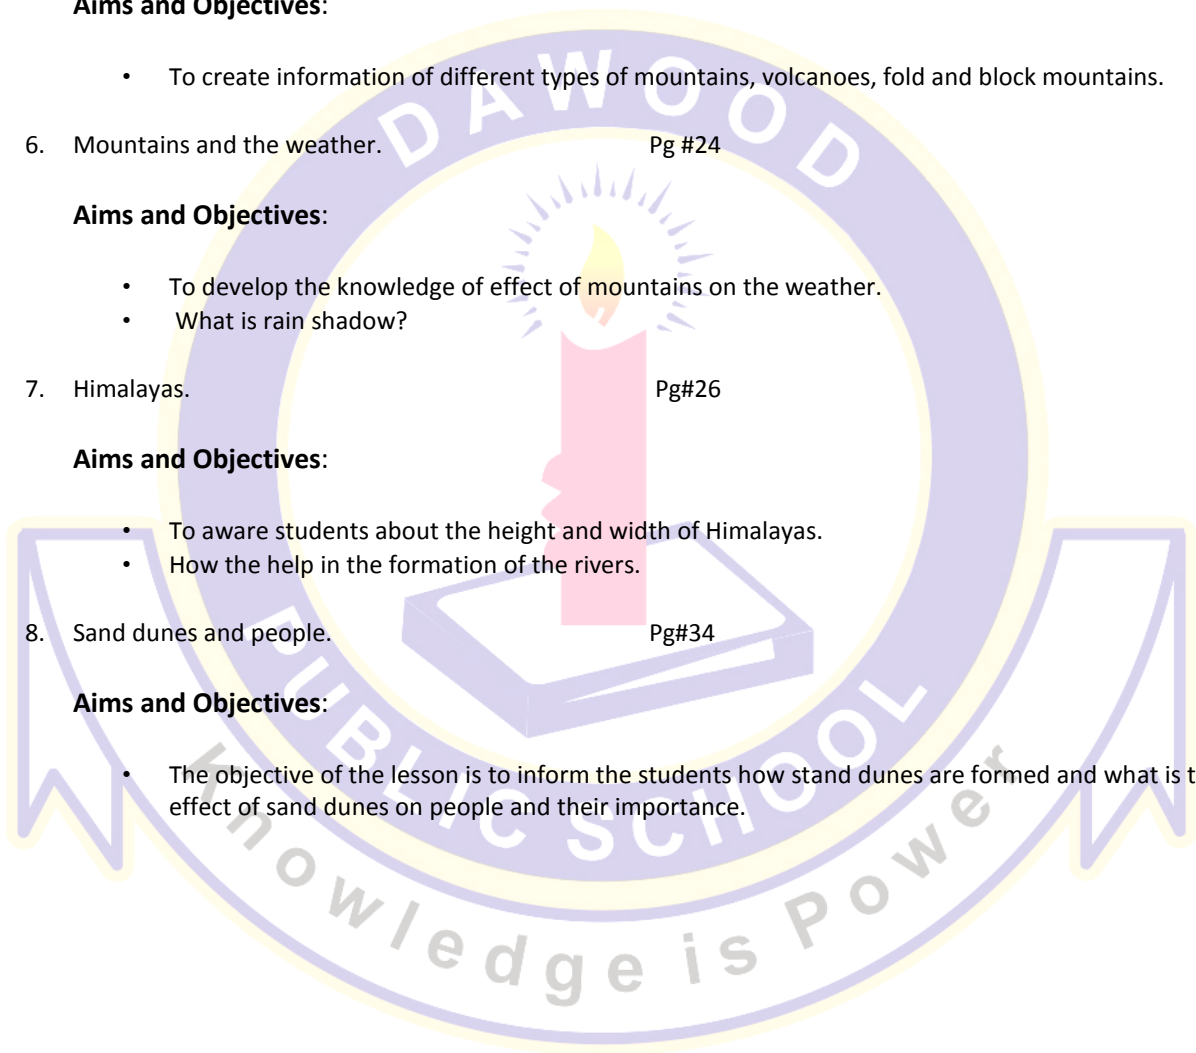

Aims and Objectives:

- To aware students about the height and width of Himalayas.
- How the help in the formation of the rivers.

8. Sand dunes and people. Pg#34

Aims and Objectives:

- The objective of the lesson is to inform the students how sand dunes are formed and what is the effect of sand dunes on people and their importance.

DAWOOD PUBLIC SCHOOL
Course Outline for the year 2011-2012
Social Studies
Class-IV

Monthly BREAK-UP

August:

1. The Old Stone Age. Pg#8

September:

1. The New Stone Age. Pg#10
2. The age of metals. Pg#12
3. Capital Cities. Pg#44 and 46

October:

1. Where does water come from? Pg#4
2. Where rivers begin? Pg#6
3. Egypt and the Nile. Pg#20.

November:

1. Pyramids and mummies. Pg#22
2. REVISION for mid-term examination.

December:

MID-TERM EXAMS.

January:

1. Rivers and people. Pg#10
2. The River Indus. Pg#12.

February:

1. Hills, mountains and map. Pg#20
2. How are mountains formed? Pg#22
3. Mountains and the weather. Pg 24

March:

1. Himalayas. Pg#26
2. Sand dunes and people. Pg#34
3. Changing coastlines. Pg#32

April:

REVISION for FINAL EXAMS.

MAY:

FINAL EXAMS
